President & Executive Director Report

The United Way of Fort McMurray and Wood Buffalo is the leading social prosperity partner in our region, convening the right people, resources, and expertise turning social purpose into social impact, and complex challenges into collaborative solutions. We endeavor to fund agencies to realize the collective vision of our region, where no one is left behind.

In 2021, we helped mobilize local social profit agencies, creating a better future for friends, neighbours, and fellow residents. Situated in the heart of private, public, and social sectors, we are connected to networks of committed individuals, community partners, and organizations. United Way is THE central organization capable of mobilizing local action, igniting the masses, and changing the circumstances for those most vulnerable right here in Wood Buffalo.

Once again, we were recognized as the number one United Way agency across Canada with the highest number of donors per capita and for our strong assets to liabilities ratio which improved by 16.7%. We ranked second in total revenue per capita, with an average donation of $52.16 per person living in our region. These are amazing accomplishments when you consider there are 71 United Way agencies in Canada. With these measurable contributions to the health and wellbeing of residents who live, work and play in Wood Buffalo along with our proven success to steward donor dollars effectively, we create lasting positive impact.

In our community, our partner agencies are deeply engaged in providing services to those who are in need of a helping hand up – not a handout, contributing limitless energy along with their time, talent and influence in support of our communities. United Way makes it easier for agencies to deliver on their social purpose objectives with our partnership and services. As a result, the Redpoll Centre is buzzing and alive with virtual and a few in-person events and activities, all focused on safely delivering social impact in our community at a time when it's needed the most.

Our diverse team is nimble and responsive to the needs of the community and of the social profit sector. We work to seamlessly and rapidly identify and deploy new strategies and solutions to meet the needs of both community and the interest of our supporters. Our staff is enriched, motivated and invested in compelling and impactful work.

We believe that having a growth mindset focused on continuous learning and adaptability will have the greatest impact in our community. By focusing on creating solutions we can help influence positive changes while being attentive and respectful of the current economic situation.

Understandably, we all have a role to play in social prosperity. Private businesses and industry, government and the social profit sector must seek to approach the growing needs of our community members with empathy and collaboration to understand diverse perspectives. We are united as a team, and as a community.

Sincerely,

Cathy Steeves

WORKING TOGETHER TO SPREAD

THE REDPOLL CENTRE

The purpose of the Redpoll Centre is to create a collaborative and professional administrative office space that incubates and strengthens community benefit groups. This allows social profit organizations the space to collaborate and work in an environment where they are able to utilize the skill sets of other professionals and likeminded individuals.

United Way Fort McMurray and Wood Buffalo is the anchor tenant of this social profit community hub. United Way subleases space to sports, arts, culture, and social profit organizations.

TOOLS FOR SCHOOL

Tools for School is a partnership between United Way Fort McMurray and Wood Buffalo and Staples Fort McMurray. The purpose of this initiative is to ensure that children from all families have access to necessary supplies to successfully participate and learn in the classroom. This year 500+ students from three local school districts received necessary school supplies through this program.

HOMELESSNESS INITIATIVES STRATEGIC COMMITTEE

United Way is proud to be part of this committee to steward and advocate the 10-year plan to end homelessness, Heading Home: The Right Thing to Do. This committee is involved in strategic planning, funding, communication, research and best practice review.

POVERTY REDUCTION NETWORK

United Way Fort McMurray and Wood Buffalo is a key stakeholder in the Poverty Reduction Network (PRN). The PRN is comprised of a group of organizations who are committed to reducing the effects of poverty in the region and supporting those whose lives have been negatively impacted by poverty. They work as a collective to raise awareness of the issues around poverty and provide innovative solutions specific to the region.

VISION

Everyone in every community has the opportunity to reach their full potential

MISSION

Empower everyone to improve lives and build strong communities

VALUES

- Energize and inspire volunteerism
- Endorse innovation, partnerships and collective action
- Provide non-partisan leadership
- Embrace diversity

Treasurer's Report

The United Way Fort McMurray and Wood Buffalo (UWFMWB) began the 2021 fiscal year with a positive outlook following a challenging 2020 fiscal year. While the worldwide COVID-19 pandemic is ongoing, UWFMWB has adapted its day-to-day operations, campaign activities and ensured compliance with Alberta Health COVID-19 directives. In 2021, UWFMWB hired an Executive Director to manage day-to-day operations, set strategic direction and overall advancement of our mission.

For the year ended December 31, 2021, the UWFMWB generated a surplus of $465,301 versus a budgeted deficit of $613,369 and a deficit of $831,082 in the prior year. Total revenue was $4,754,980 down $ 472,517 (10%) from the prior year. Campaign revenue was $3,918,435, an increase of $668,435 (20.5%) versus budget, and an increase of $421,752 (12.1%) over the prior year. Campaign revenue exceeded our expectations which reflects of the great generosity of our donors, exceptional commitment by employer worksite campaigns and creativity of UNFMWB staff in employing new fundraising strategies. The decline in non-campaign revenues was primarily due to lower Red Cross funding earned, and no additional Pandemic Recovery funding from the Federal Government of Canada.

For the year ended December 31, 2021 total expense was $4,663,369, a decrease of $8,931 (0.2%) versus budget, and a decrease of $1,493,631 (24.2%) over the prior year. The decline in expenditures over the prior year is primarily due to lower agency funding from available 2020 campaign revenues.

While we continue to work and move through these difficult times, our board, staff and volunteers continue to monitor trends, adapt and develop strategies to diversify revenue sources.

Developing sustainable solutions to meet the needs of our community is our priority. With the current surplus and sound investment strategies, UWFMWB has liquid net asset reserves of $11,250,392, excluding investments in capital assets. When adjusted for the 2022-23 Community Agency funding commitment of $3,132,605, reserves become $8,117,787.

The UWFMWB Board of Directors and staff continue to develop strategies to improve the overall financial health of our organization by ensuring:

- Adequate cash reserves are on hand and appropriate investment strategies are employed
- A disciplined approach to fund management including strong oversight of the operation's expenses and effective administration of agency funding
- Effective internal controls exist
- New funding opportunities are pursued to ensure sustainable campaign contributions
- Continuous improvement in financial and investment reporting
- Revenue growth from the Redpoll Centre

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I confirm that the financial statements continue to provide evidence of fiscal responsibility, strength and discipline exercised by the UWFMWB. This focus, along with stewardship, provides a strong foundation for the UWFMWB to successfully meet community needs, future economic challenges and demonstrate maximum benefit of donor contributions.

I wish to thank all the remarkable individuals who are the driving force of the UWFMWB organization, agencies, partner organizations, volunteers and generous donors who help build a stronger community. It has been a privilege to serve as your Treasurer.

Sincerely,

Dale Mountain CPA-CGA

S.O.S Impact Story

By: Majd Daqqa

Just as most youth in the city of Fort McMurray, I was a perplexed twelve-year-old with little to do and energy to spare. A youngster overflowing with ambition, I, however, lacked many qualities a present me would deem essential for success. Fiddling with video games and nonsense was all I did in my free time. I walked through the halls of my junior high aimlessly day after day. I was just another kid within a herd, unaware if the path I was on led to accomplishment or utter nothingness.

That was until my vice principal approached me. He invited me to his office to talk about a program known as S.A.S.P. (Students Assisting Student Peers). I was eager but missing initiative. Unaware of what to expect, I took a chance with hesitation. A clueless kid, this would propel me to becoming the person I am today. How would a twelve-year-old me know that though? Instantly hooked, I was reeled in more and more as the year went on. The program allowed me to attend in meetings and school district-wide workshops. I gained insight while becoming more conscious of my actions and attentive of those around me. I became a leader among peers, no longer aimlessly wandering. This had paved a path of proactivity through sports, volunteerism, and non-profit work; in fact, I was hired by S.O.S (Some Other Solutions) in the summer of 2019 as a mentor for the Creative Roots Summer Camp. During my employment, I had made it a goal to be the role model I always aspired to have. Working along with the junior mentor program, I was empowered to share and apply my experiences with leadership. As camp progressed, I witnessed campers take action while becoming role models for others, develop keen attributes, and have fun.

In a mere eight-week period, I made genuine connections and shared countless experiences with campers who were once simply strangers. It was a summer of development for all of us. I could only hope that I passed on a fraction of what I learned and impacted their journeys just as they had impacted mine.

On the last day of work, as I walked down the office hallway, I was drawn to a picture framed on the wall. It was taken in the basement of a church, where a twelve-year old me sat with a timid smile that showed pure joy. Surrounded by students alike, it brought back memories. Who would've thought that life would circle me back to where it all started? To be employed as a mentor by S.O.S. Somebody whose goal is to enlighten the youth in Fort McMurray, help them discover their path, and guide them to their betterment. Because a nineteen-year-old me for sure didn't. As I stood there, I realized that the role model I always aspired to have was there all along in the form of my peers, mentors, and organizations like S.O.S. They are the ones that propelled me to become the person I am today; a humbled nineteen-year-old university student who has the aspiration and drive to inspire those around him every day.

Jail N' Bail

While restrictions were lifted for some events in December, United Way Fort McMurray Wood Buffalo held what they hope will be known as an annual event — a Jail 'N Bail.

The whole day saw community leaders and business owners be tried and convicted for many fun misdemeanors. As they sat in "jail" they took on the task of raising their own bail by calling their family, friends and coworkers. After lots of laughs the United Way team was happy to add up the totals to find out that over $35,000 was raised.

Thank you to all who participated and made the day fun and successful!
